5. [redacted] Mr. Samuel Carpenter, Senator Bible's office, called on behalf of [redacted] Carson City, Nevada, who is now a sophomore in college and desired information on what courses would best suit him for employment with the Agency. I told Mr. Carpenter that we would be happy to drop [redacted] a line on this subject and send him a brochure on our employment opportunities. Office of Personnel was requested to prepare such a letter including a copy for information to Senator Bible's office. 25X1 25X1
6. [redacted] Received a call from Mr. Birdsall of Ward and Paul Shorthand Reporters asking whether the transcript of the DCF's testimony before Senate Foreign Relations Committee this morning should contain a classification on each page or whether classification of the cover would be sufficient. Mr. Birdsall was told that each page should be classified. 25X1
7. [redacted] Discussed with Mr. Granquist, Legislative Assistant to Senator Bibleff, the options which were available to us in handling the [redacted] case. Mr. Granquist recommended that we prepare a short reply on Agency letterhead and a draft of a reply that the Senator could send to [redacted] 25X1 25X1 25X1
8. [redacted] Arranged with Mr. Jack Leahy, State Department, L & L, to get from him the original of a letter to Senator Dirksen from one [redacted] for review by Chief, SR. 25X1 25X1
9. [redacted] The Director, together with other Agency officials, met with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and provided them with a world situation briefing. See Memorandum for the record for details. 25X1
10. [redacted] Organization meeting of House Armed Services Committee scheduled for this morning was cancelled due to a laryngitis infection incurred by Mr. Rivers, the Chairman. 25X1
11. [redacted] I accompanied Congressman Price (D., Ill.), who addressed the Agency Mid-Career course at the Brookings Institute on the subject of the role of Congress. Mr. Price was most generous in his remarks about the Agency and its relationship with Congress. 25X1
